Pure adrenaline kick! Sledge Run

The most famous sledding trail in Switzerland is a very special winter adventure: it leads from Preda (1800 m) on a winding, five-kilometer-long descent along the snow-covered Albula road to Bergün (1400 m). Even the journey by train is an experience: from St. Moritz, the Rhaetian Railway winds through a true fairy tale landscape – the UNESCO World Heritage route of Albula is a highlight, where newlyweds can prove their willingness to take risks.

A carriage ride in Engadine Giddy-up!

Off on the classic horse-drawn carriage and into a spectacular setting shortly before or after the wedding ceremony. The horses do the work and you have your eyes and ears open for the breathtaking Engadine nature. Here the surrounding mountain peaks of the imposing Bernina range present themselves in a particularly impressive way. Take a deep breath, take in the alpine air, and return full of fresh impressions. Giddy-up!

The helicopter will take you very close to the peaks of Piz Palü and Piz Bernina – and into seventh heaven, although there you are already floating in your honeymoon!
